Grand Knight's Message

Brothers,

I recently received my 4th degree and have to say it was a very enjoyable experience, being incredibly informative and quite educational. I highly recommend anyone who has not taken their fourth to consider completing all the degrees. Congratulations to Brother Steve Pond who attended with me and a big thank you to the degree team who did an incredible job. Also thank you to the Waterloo council for hosting the degree. I look forward to seeing many of you at our annual Christmas dinner at the legion on December 17th.

God Bless.

Rick Weishar

Newly formed 4th degree Council 8192 members Sir Knights Steve Pond and Rick Weishar seen here with Faithful Navigator Todd Cowan and District Master Peter Wouters.

Lee Fortney

Lee Fortney, the brother-in-law of our esteemed Grand Knight, has been a dedicated Knight for seven years. His professional journey includes significant roles such as Program Manager at Trapeze Group, and positions at BlackBerry Ltd. and the Correctional Service of Canada in Guelph.

Hailing from Walkerton, ON, Lee is an alumnus of Walkerton District Secondary School and the University of Waterloo. Now retired, he resides in Kitchener.

Lee joined the executive of Council 8192 this year serving as a trustee. We welcome you to the executive and thank you for your input at our meetings.
