Meet our Members

Adrian Miltenburg

Brother Adrian Miltenburg has been very involved with our Council, our Parish and in the community. He volunteers with the Knights at various functions throughout the year and has been on the Executive in various roles, including as our Grand Knight from 2018-2021. He is sometimes found Sunday mornings greeting you as a Minister of Hospitality.

Adrian is “a very special granddad” to 7 grandkids.

Adrian was, for many years, a partner and doctor at Eldale Veterinary Clinic in Elmira. His specialty was large animals; many farmers asked specifically for Adrian to tend to their animals. He retired in 2019. One of Adrian’s hobbies is finish carpentry; his handiwork is evident in the grand prize for the St. Teresa Garden Party.

In our community, he was appointed to the Township of Woolwich Environmental Enhancement Committee for the years 2019-2022 and was involved with the Woolwich Tree give-away event in October of 2023. He himself has also planted many trees over the years for the surrounding community. Thanks for all you do, Adrian!

Supreme Council recognized Fr. Peter Meyer on celebrating his 25th year of ordination to the priesthood. Grand Knight Al Vodicka presented Fr. Peter with a plaque.

Seminarian Joseph Mendoca was presented with his 3rd degree certificate. Although Joseph is a member of a Mississauga Council, we recognized this milestone at our meeting. Congratulations Joe.
